The records of the Office of Information, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Cambridge, Mass., reflect that Annamaria T. Gorini is a Research Associate in the Department of Biology and resides at 115 Longwood Ave., Brookline, Mass.

Boston files reflect that on 2/9/62, Mr. FRANK O'ROURKE, 105 Longwood Ave., Brookline, advised that LUIGI GORINI, a doctor of medicine, and his wife, resided in the neighborhood, that GORINI's wife is also an M.D., and that Mrs. GORINI advised O'ROURKE that prior to their coming to this country they were members of the Communist Party (CP) in Italy and that both GORINI and his wife have spent some time in Russia.

On 4/17/62, Mr. FRANK O'ROURKE, 105 Longwood Ave., Brookline, was interviewed by SA [REDACTED] O'ROURKE advised b6 that he had no specific information that he could furnish which b7C would indicate that LUIGI GORINI or his wife are engaged or have ever been engaged in subversive activities inimical to the best interests of the United States. He stated that he based his original information that he furnished on 2/9/62 on a conversation that he had with LUIGI GORINI's wife during the early fall of 1961. He pointed out that GORINI and his wife reside at 115 Longwood Ave., Brookline, and have resided at this residence for about two years.

According to Mr. O'ROURKE, his acquaintance with GORINI and his wife is a very limited one and other than to say "Hello" to them, he has never engaged in any conversation with either other than the aforementioned conversation with GORINI's wife.

O'ROURKE stated that sometime during the summer of 1961, GORINI and his wife took a trip to Europe for several months and upon their return to their residence in Brookline he happened to see GORINI's wife outside her home. At this time he asked her how she and her husband enjoyed their trip to Europe. He advised that during this conversation GORINI's wife revealed to him that during said trip she and her husband had visited Moscow. He recalled that she had said something that had indicated to him that she and her husband thought that the Communist Party had done some good for the people of Italy. O'ROURKE was questioned concerning specific statements made by GORINI's wife. He said he could recall no specific statement and pointed out that the entire conversation with GORINI's wife lasted less than five minutes.

BS 105-14665

O'ROURKE again stated that at no time has he had a conversation with GORINI. He could give no specific information concerning any allegations concerning GORINI or his wife's membership or activities in the CP. He said GORINI and his wife continue to reside at the above mentioned address, and he occasionally sees them in the neighborhood, but merely passes the time of day with them and never engages in any conversation with them. He said he has never heard anything from other neighbors indicating that GORINI or his wife were engaged in any communist activities in the United States.

On 4/24/62, [REDACTED] Record Division, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Boston, Mass., made available LUIGI GORINI's INS file bearing No. A8815982 and GORINI's wife's INS file bearing No. A10292437. A review of these files revealed the following pertinent information concerning GORINI and his wife:

LUIGI GORINI was admitted to the United States under the name of LUIGI CONSTANTINO GORINI at the Port of New York, New York, on 6/29/55. He was born on 11/13/03, Milano, Italy. He was sponsored by New York University and came to this country as a nonimmigrant exchange visitor. He traveled to this country on Italian Passport bearing No. 2258434P/13313, issued by the Italian Consulate on 7/28/53, at Paris, France, to expire on 12/31/57. His Immigrant Visa bore No. V706487. His last foreign address was listed as 6 Rue Huysmans, Paris, France. His purpose of coming to the United States was to do scientific research at New York University School of Medicine. Some years prior to coming to the United States he had been studying in the Department of Biochemistry at the University of Paris.

LUIGI GORINI's wife, ANNMARIE TORRIANI GORINI, born 12/19/18, Milano, Italy, also entered the United States at the Port of New York, New York, on 6/29/55, under the name of ANNAMARIE TORRIANI under the sponsorship of New York University Foreign Student Center. Her purpose in coming to the United States was to complete training and research in Microbiology. Her last foreign address was 6 Rue Huysmans, Paris, France, where she resided from 1948 to 1955.

According to the INS file on GORINI, he was then employed by Harvard University Medical School and is a Scientist by occupation. The INS file maintained on GORINI's wife indicates she was then employed at MIT, Cambridge.

BS 105-14665

A review of the above mentioned INS files failed to indicate any unfavorable information concerning GORINI or his wife, nor did these files contain any information indicating that GORINI or his wife were engaged in any activities inimical to the best interests of the United States. The files contained no information indicating that GORINI and his wife had ever been members of the CP.

The informant has not been able to furnish any further identifying information concerning ROBPROF.

It is to be noted that LUIGI GORINI has studied in the Department of Biochemistry at the University of Paris and that his wife has had training in the field of microbiology, with one employed at Harvard University and the other at MIT. It is also to be noted that in 1961 the GORINIs, husband and wife, traveled to Europe and made a trip to Paris. This, coupled with their background, and the allegation that they were members of the CP in Italy, would appear to qualify them as suspects for Unsub, ROBPROF.

In view of the very limited information presently available concerning this Unsub, it is felt that a positive identification will never be made.

BS 105-14665

In view of the foregoing, it is recommended that Bureau authority be granted for interview of Dr. LUIGI CONSTANTINO GORINI concerning the visit of [REDACTED]. It is felt that to interview GORINI concerning this subject matter would be reasonable and at this time further questioning could be had regarding his having met any other Soviets at any time, which would also include his visit to Moscow. It would appear that GORINI may possibly admit other contacts if such have been had at this time b6 b7C

In addition, if it is determined that GORINI's wife, ANNAMARIA, also met with [REDACTED], it is requested that authority be granted to interview her along the same line. b6 b7C
